

DANVILLE PARK GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL

Sports Results Week ending 31 May 2014

VOLLEYBALL:

This past weekend the Danville teams participated in the League held at Westville Girls and the results were as follows:

U19

Danville	vs	Northlands	just lost	26 - 30
Danville	vs	Westville	won	30 - 23
Danville	vs	Kingsway	a very close game losing	29 - 30
Danville	vs	Ridge Park.	another very close game and lost	29 - 30

U16

Danville	vs	Westville U16C	won	30 - 22
Danville	vs	Ridge Park	won	30 - 29

Well done to the Volleyball teams and good luck for the playoffs this weekend.

Hockey

On Saturday Danville played against Our Lady of Fatima and the results were as follows:

Danville 1st team	won	3 - 1	Player of the match was	Sydney Field
Danville 2nd team	won	2 - 0	Player of the match was	Nthombi Dlamini
Danville U16A	won	1 - 0	Player of the match was	Emma Wittstock
Danville U14A	won	2 - 0	Player of the match was	Christy Gilmour

As Fatima are a small school and do not have all the team in certain age groups – Danville U14B, U16B and C played Invitational Fixtures in order to give them game time.

Their results were as follows:

Danville U16B played Northlands U16A and drew 2-2 Player of the match was Danielle Rothwell

Danville U16C played Fatima U13 A and unfortunately lost Players of the match was all the defenders.

Danville U14B played Umhlanga College U14A and just lost 0-1 which is not a true reflection of the game as Danville had possession of the ball for majority of the game.

Congratulations to the following U16 girls who have been included in the KZN U16 squad:

Erin Shillaw
Storm Christy

Well done and Good Luck to the following U14 girls who will compete in the final round of KZN selections

Well done ladies.

Squash

The first team played a match on the 21 May against Durban Girls' College and although they played well and never gave up, were outplayed by Durban Girls College.

We'll try to help the squash girls and keep up the hard work.

Horse Riding

Alison Inggs on Medicine Man took part in the 4th SANESA qualifier at the Durban Shongweni Club this past weekend.

Alison took part in the High school level 6 Jumping classes (1.20m) and came 1st and 2nd in these classes.

Kendall Smith competed in the Top Hat Dressage show at Mount Edgecomb stables. Kendall came first in her Prelim One Dressage on her horse Asian Parade.
