

DJ LORA (Laura Elliott)

CHARITY WORKER OF THE YEAR

We are so proud of our past pupil, international super-star DJ Lora. Not only has Laura Elliott excelled in the almost exclusively male domain of the disc jockey industry, being in demand to “spin the vinyl” at parties from Dubai to New York to Dubai and in her home city of London, but she holds the altruistic banner high. Laura has been acknowledged as CHARITY WORKER OF THE YEAR, receiving this prestigious recognition at Westminster in London recently. Laura epitomises the Danville ethos : A Gift beyond an Education! We are proud not only of her success but also of her caring nature for others.

